If the property being transferred is new construction and recently completed or in the process of completion at the time the AGREEMENT was signed by the parties, the escrow agent is instructed to make a good faith estimate of the taxes to be owed on the value of the improved property to the date of title transfer and reserve sufficient funds in escrow from SELLER’s net proceeds to pay those taxes when they become due and payable after title transfer. The escrow agent is instructed to release the balance, if any, of the funds on reserve, once it receives notice from the local county auditor that the taxes on the land and improvements have been paid in full to the date of title transfer. BUYER acknowledges that the latest available tax duplicate may not accurately reflect the amount of taxes and assessments that will be owed. SELLER agrees to reimburse BUYER directly outside of escrow for any increase in valuation and the cost of all passed or levied, but not yet certified, taxes and assessments, if any, prorated to the date of title transfer. SELLER is not aware of any proposed taxes or assessments, public or private, except the following:

Buyer is advised to hire a professional inspector who is qualified to determine whether mold is present in the property, what type of mold is present and to propose an appropriate treatment of any mold that is discovered. Both prior and current water leaks and water damage to a property can result in the existence of mold which may cause adverse health effects.

Within three (3) days after completion of the last inspection, BUYER shall elect one of the following:

(A) Remove the inspection contingency and accept the property in its “AS IS” present physical condition. If the property is accepted in its “AS IS” present physical condition, then BUYER agrees to sign an Amendment to Removal of Contingency.

(B) Accept the property subject to SELLER agreeing to have specific material defects, that were either previously disclosed in writing by the SELLER or identified in a written inspection report, repaired by a qualified contractor in a professional manner at SELLER’s expense; BUYER agrees to provide SELLER with a copy of all inspection reports and to sign an Amendment to Purchase Agreement removing the inspection contingency and identifying those specific material defects which are to be repaired. BUYER and SELLER shall have three (3) days from SELLER’S receipt of BUYER’S written request and copies of inspection reports to agree in writing which material defect(s), if any, shall be corrected by SELLER at SELLER’S expense. If BUYER and SELLER do not agree in writing within those three (3) days, then this AGREEMENT shall be null and void, and SELLER and BUYER agree to sign a mutual release, whereupon the earnest money shall be returned to BUYER. SELLER agrees to provide reasonable access to the property for BUYER to review any such material defects corrected by SELLER. For purposes of this AGREEMENT, "material defects" DO NOT include minor routine maintenance. OR
(C) Terminate this Agreement if BUYER's written inspection report(s) or any other source(s) identify material defects NOT previously disclosed in writing by SELLER. If BUYER elects to terminate, BUYER agrees to provide a copy of the written inspection report(s) to SELLER, and both parties agree to promptly sign a mutual release, whereupon the earnest money shall be returned to BUYER.

In that event, SELLER and BUYER agree to sign a mutual release with instruction to the Broker for disbursement of the earnest money on deposit. If such damage is less than ten percent of the purchase price, SELLER shall restore the property to its prior condition and BUYER agrees to complete the purchase of the property.
