HOLIDAY FUN IN RICHMOND HEIGHTS

A Message from Mayor Daniel J. Ursu

As we transition to 2004, you are probably reading or hearing in the media of the dire straits of numerous government entities and especially cities, due to the economy. I am pleased to report that we continue to have a strong balance sheet in Richmond Heights! City Council, Finance Director Mike Thomas and other Department Heads and I have always endeavored to make prudent economic decisions for our residents. This has helped to keep the City of Richmond Heights in good fiscal health. In fact, Richmond Heights has recently hired a new Police Officer and is in the process of hiring three new Firefighter/Paramedics.

For computer users in the City, by the time that you read this we will have launched our City website at www.richmondheightsohio.org. Finance Director Mike Thomas has been spearheading the website project since last year. I believe that it contains useful Richmond Heights information for residents or out-of-towners seeking knowledge about Richmond Heights outside of normal City Hall working hours.

Information on the site includes a description of City Council and each of the City's Departments and their activities. The purpose of the various Boards and Commissions of the City and their members can also be found. Reproduced in full on our website is also the 1967 "Golden Anniversary History of the City of Richmond Heights" which was compiled by the Richmond Heights Kiwanis Club. Further, convenient links to other relevant government agencies and representatives can be found.

Another purpose of the website is to have information available to supplement our periodic "City Edition" newsletter, especially for persons seeking information after hours. It is not meant to replace direct contact with City Departments via the telephone or stopping by to visit City Hall during normal working hours. So please, continue to call or visit City Hall in person and when that is not possible, if you are a computer user, the website is available.

Lastly, the City is served by dedicated persons who essentially "volunteer" their time by serving on Boards and Commissions. These groups meet monthly and are established by the City Charter. From time-to-time, openings occur and I am required by the City Charter to appoint replacements. Every now and then, persons tell me that if they knew about these openings, they would enjoy serving. If you fit into that category, please send me your resume, to my attention, which I will keep on file. As openings are rare, you might not ever be asked to serve but I will at least be aware of your interest. For information on the function of the various Boards and Commissions, please check our website or call City Hall.

Happy New Year!

BUILDING DEPARTMENT NEW EMPLOYEE

Chuck Zelle has been hired to fill a vacancy in the Building Department. Chuck comes to the City with 30 years experience in the fire service, 15 of which he headed Garfield Heights Fire Safety Inspection Program. While being trained as a building inspector, Chuck will oversee the City's Business Maintenance Program.

PROPERTY MAINTENANCE PROGRAM

The Building Department will again oversee a property maintenance inspection program beginning in the spring as the weather allows. The Service Committee of Council has requested that the Department focus on the older housing stock and conduct a more detailed inspection than in the past. With this in mind, a plan has been developed to allow for the systematic inspection of about 1/3 of the City's properties in 2004. The program will be repeated in 2005 and 2006 focusing on other areas of the City. The streets slated for this year's program are: Chardon Road, Newcome Street, Sedley Street, Beverly Hills Drive, Chelford Avenue, Brookdale Road, Sunset Drive, Skyline Drive, Glen Oval Circle, Edgemont Drive, Richmond Road, Horizon Drive, Swetland Boulevard, Nan Linn Drive, Karen Isle Drive, Allendale Drive, Fairlawn Drive, Anthony Street, Donald Avenue, Geraldine Avenue and Monticello Boulevard.

MISSING PERSONS

The Police Department is participating in two initiatives that would become valuable tools in locating missing persons.

AMBER ALERT

The first is the Northern Ohio Amber Alert plan. This plan brings together City and County agencies, as well as the news media in an effort to locate a missing child. There has been some confusion about the Amber Alert Plan. It is important to remember that only a law enforcement agency can initiate the plan. In addition, this plan addresses person under the age of 18 and there must be "credible" information that the child was "forcibly" or "intentionally removed or lured away". This information would indicate that the child is in danger of serious bodily harm or death.

ACIM PROGRAM

The "A Child is Missing" Program can be used to locate not only missing children, but missing disabled and elderly individuals. This program may be used in conjunction with Amber Alert in applicable cases. The program allows a central office, once notified by law enforcement, to contact hundreds of homes and businesses via telephone with a recorded message. The message would indicate that a person was missing, would give a description of the person and would supply the telephone number to call the police.

SNOW PROBLEMS AND SNOW REMOVAL

Hazardous road conditions, heavy snowfall or excessive ice build up should be reported directly to the police department for the quickest attention. The police department has direct radio contract with the City's snow removal crews.

Commercial snow plow operators are required to obtain a permit ($10.00) from the police department each winter. The police department cannot recommend a particular snow plow operator or company. The fact that a snow plow operator has a permit does not translate into quality assurance; it merely reflects compliance with City ordinances. Before contracting with a snow plow operator, check references and check with the Better Business Bureau at (216) 241-7678.

INSIGHTS AND ILLUMINATIONS

Residents of Richmond Heights and all Hillcrest communities are cordially invited to join business leaders, community leaders, and clergy from all of the Hillcrest communities to participate in a series of community building discussions for the Hillcrest suburbs. The workshops are called "Insights and Illuminations" and are being sponsored by the Heights Community Congress, Cuyahoga County Planning Department, and Notre Dame College Tolerance Resource Center.

The workshops are designed to enhance perceptions about the Hillcrest area cities and to serve as a catalyst for positive change. All three sessions will be held at Notre Dame College, just off South Green Road from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. Workshops dates are: Wednesday, February 18; Tuesday, March 9 & Tuesday, March 23.

You are welcome to attend one or all three sessions. Please call 216-321-6775 to register or to find out more about this thought-provoking series of discussions.

Respectfully Yours,
Daniel J. Ursu, Mayor

TRI-CITY CONSORTIUM ON AGING

Council President Lee Gase was recently asked about the consortium. The question was “Why doesn’t Richmond Heights belong to the Tri-City Consortium on Aging?”

Mr. Gase was directed to Art Pitingolo from Highland Heights, who is the President of the Consortium’s Advisory Board, and to Bernice Harel of South Euclid, who is the Director. When the City of South Euclid, and others, formed the Consortium 26 years ago in 1978, they asked if Richmond Heights wished to join. Richmond Heights declined. Mayfield Heights also declined. The current member communities are South Euclid, Lyndhurst and Highland Heights.

The Consortium has its headquarters in the South Euclid Civic Center behind Giant Eagle on Victory Drive. They have a part-time director and a part time staff. They are governed by an advisory commission from the three cities. Initially, the Consortium had access to a lot of grant money, but much of that has become unavailable. Their annual budget is now around $535,000. Eighty percent of this comes from the three cities, based on relative population. Seventeen percent comes from federal and state funds, and about three percent comes from donations.

It is not practical that the Consortium allow Richmond Heights to join now because it would require re-negotiation with all of their funding sources. However, although some benefits are available only to the residents of the three Consortium communities, because they support it, many of the services they provide are also available to Richmond Heights. Some of our seniors already use them, particularly their lunches (which cost a one dollar donation), and some of their tours.

The Consortium publishes a newsletter describing all their activities, including the schedule and menus for the lunches. The newsletters are available at some of the local grocery stores and banks.

SPARKY SAYS

Once again it’s the middle of a long cold winter. Your furnaces are working overtime and your boots and gloves are getting worn out. We can only hope that an early spring will be here soon.

As heating bills go up some residents like to use portable space heaters. Please be sure you follow these safety guidelines when using portable heaters. Only use the proper fuel that is recommended by the manufacturer. Always keep a 3-foot safety zone around the heater where there is no furniture, curtains, papers, or anything else that can burn. Kids, remember to keep a 3-foot kids-safe zone around all heaters. No toys, games, running or playing in that zone. Also, make sure you do not overload an electrical outlet with an electric space heater.

This time of year we also have some very hazardous driving conditions. If you see emergency vehicles coming up behind you, please pull off to the side of the road so they can safely pass. Even with all the lights on and the sirens blaring the firefighters and paramedic are very often cut off at intersections or stuck behind a vehicle that will not pull over and let them pass. Please stay alert to your surroundings when using your cell phones or listening to your favorite music on your radio.

Kids, let’s start getting ready for the nice spring weather now. Make sure that your old bike helmet fits properly before it’s time to ride your bike this year. Also, remind your parents to keep all their lawn fertilizers and chemicals stored up high out of the reach of small kids.

As always, the Richmond Heights Fire Department will be out in the schools, businesses, and civic group meetings giving programs on fire safety, injury prevention, workplace safety, disaster planning, and many other subjects. If you are in need of a program, please contact our Public Education Department at (216) 383-6325. Ask for Firefighter Dominic Silvestro when you call.

AT YOUR SERVICE DEPARTMENT

The Service Department would like to take this opportunity to wish residents a very Happy New Year and at this time pass along a few reminders. For residents who have mailboxes at the curb, please be sure that they are properly secured to the post and that the post has been installed at the proper distance from the street. The city is not responsible for damage to mailboxes from heavy snow.

There will be a Computer Roundup April 3, 6, and 10, and a Paint Roundup (no latex) May 4, 8, 11, and 15. Please take your items to the Recycling Drop Off Center at 26260 Chardonview Road. The hours are Tuesdays 4:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. and Saturdays 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. Please remember curbside recycling occurs every week on your regular trash day for cans, glass and plastic. For an information sheet on the Recycling Program, call (216) 486-2474.

Republic Waste, the contractor for trash removal, recommends that residents put their trash in plastic bags, such as grocer’s bags, before placing trash in garbage cans. This will minimize trash blowing around the neighborhood, especially on windy days.

Richmond Heights Recreation Youth Basketball program has elevated to new heights this year with over 200 participants.

The program will benefit the Middle School students with funds to supplement school supplies that may not be provided by the district funding. We are asking you to collect and donate your used cartridges and cell phones from home and work. Collection boxes will be provided at the Middle School Office, Richmond Heights City Hall and at Charter One Bank at 690 Richmond Road. A complete list of recyclable cartridges and cell phones, can be viewed at the Middle School PTO web page at www.richmond-heights.k12.oh.us. In conjunction with the Flu Shot, a Resource Fair was held in the adjoining room and many providers from health care agencies, health care products, as well as nursing homes and assisted living facilities were represented. There were give-aways and valuable information for all. There was a surplus of "Vials of Life" that were handed out at the Flu Shot Program and Resource Fair and are available at City Hall to anyone who requests one.

The volunteers did a wonderful job, and everything went smoothly during the flu shot program.

UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL/RICHMOND HEIGHTS CONTINUES TO GROW

Three and a half years after becoming part of the University Hospitals Health System Richmond Heights Hospital continues to grow and prosper as a vital asset to our community. The success enjoyed at the hospital is reflected by the increase in the number of hospital admissions, outpatient services, surgery volume, Emergency Department visits (which ranks among the top 6% of departments across the country for customer service), and the continued renovations and improvements to our physical plant. The hospital is currently installing a new MRI magnet that will be operational in February 2004. This new technology will rival any in the area for clarity and quality of imaging, and will greatly enhance the care and treatment of patients who will be utilizing this new service.
